

VCS Gives Back to the Community at HIMSS09

Kennett Square, PA– March 2, 2009 – Mm Mm Good Deeds. Vitalize Consulting Solutions Inc., (VCS) will team up with the Greater Chicago Food Depository this year at HIMSS annual conference to help fight the battle against hunger in Chicago’s Cook County. It’s been a hard year for many and the executives at VCS were having a tough time shelling out the usual dollars to participate in the conference. CEO Bruce Cerullo says, “With some major vendors pulling their support out this year, we definitely thought about the necessity of the usual spending. But our food bank campaign struck a perfect balance. On a reduced show budget and an increased charitable donation promise, we’re able to be a part of HIMSS and help the Chicago community. It’s a good reflection of who we are.”

Twenty-six percent of the households served in Chicago’s food banks must choose between buying food and paying for healthcare. VCS hopes a little goodwill from healthcare organizations will help tie over some of these people in Cook County until the economy strengthens. If you’re at HIMSS, visit booth #3055 to help erase hunger in the Chicago community and pick up a goodie for yourself!

About the Greater Chicago Food Depository

The Greater Chicago Food Depository, Chicago’s food bank, is a non-profit food distribution and training center providing food for hungry people while striving to end hunger in our community. The Food Depository distributes donated and purchased food through a network of 600 pantries, soup kitchens and shelters to 500,000 adults and children in Cook County every year. Last year, the Food Depository distributed 46 million pounds of non-perishable food and fresh produce, dairy products and meat, the equivalent of 95,000 meals every day. The Food Depository’s programs and services for children, older adults and the unemployed and underemployed address the root causes of hunger.
